Not all organizations are alike.

We understand that some structures are multi-faceted and require a longer time just to identify what the hurdles are. During your session, your SORC PC will gather information about your organization and help develop a plan of action.

Yeah. There’s a club for that.
All organizations in one place.

With over 800 registered student organizations, the University of Maryland has a club to meet almost any need or interest. Stop by our space to find out more or visit us online at orgsync.umd.edu and see a list of all registered student groups.
