Professor’s Perspective
Dr. Nina Harris
Who am I?

There’s no place like home!
My first job!

Who am I?
Who am I?

Three time alum of the University of Delaware
Psychology and Criminal Justice
Liberal Studies
Education Leadership: Policy and Administration

Who am I? former art major
Who am I?

Very active student leader.
Who am I?

Proud to be a Terp now.
What is Public Policy?

School of Public Policy
I teach

• Examining Pluralism in Public Policy
• Leadership
• Ethics

School of Public Policy
Succeeding in the classroom

- Sit up front whenever you can.
- Take notes.
- If faculty say no technology, adhere!
- Don’t be afraid to talk in class.
- Classmates are your future professional network!

You can do this!
You can do this!

Develop good study habits.

- Turn your work in on time
- Ask for clarification
- Pay close attention to the syllabus

ON THE SYLLABUS

THE ANSWER TO YOUR QUESTION IS
Get to know us!

• Get to know one faculty per semester.
• Find someway to identify with them.
• Know their research interests.
• Respectfully address us in emails: not, “Hey”!

You can do this!
You can do this!

Administrators help you find your way, too.

- Deans: we are here to help you.
- Academic Advisors: will provide you with your roadmap to your degree.
- It’s ok to change your major; I did!
Support Resources on campus

• Career Services
• Counseling Center
• Academic Advising

You can do this!
Don’t miss out!

• Join a student org/invest in it.

• Beginning a professional networking.

Make lifelong friends. I did!
These can and should be the best 4, 5 or 6 years of your life.

Have fun, but study hard.

No one is in charge of your success but you!

Fall in love with learning, don’t just chase good grades.

You can do this!
Fear the Turtle!

Good luck to you all!